Electives

Electives are a set of courses that fulfill lower-division (freshman and sophomore) requirements for a specific major/degree plan in addition to the core curriculum. Western Texas College requires 18 hours of electives to qualify for graduation.

Electives can be taken in the following areas: