The cost of the Westerner Card is included in the "General Use Fees". This includes the cost of the card and administrative cost associated with production.

b. Students Replacement Cards

A $10 charge will be placed on the student's college account when a replacement ID card is issued. If payment is not received, student records are sealed by the Dean of Student Services offices. All payments must be submitted to the Business Office.

Students and other college cardholders do not have to surrender their cards upon discontinuing their employment/association with Western Texas College.
