* Loans should be considered only after exhausting all other aid sources. These loans are serious financial obligations that must be repaid. Loans may have long-term implications and the amount of money borrowed may affect your financial ability to purchase a home or car after college.

The William D. Ford Direct Loan Program- The following loan programs provide assistance to students who have additional financial need to cover the cost of attending college.

Direct- Subsidized Stafford Loan - A low interest loan based on need available through the U.S. Department of Education. The federal Government pays the interest on the student's loan while he or she is enrolled at least halftime. Those who do not qualify for the subsidized loan (in whole or part) may be considered for the Unsubsidized Stafford Loan. The current interest rate is 4.65%.

Direct- Unsubsidized Stafford Loan - A low interest loan not based on need available through the U.S. Department of Education. Interest accrues on the loan during the entire period of the loan (from the time it is disbursed to the school until you pay it off). The current interest rate is 4.65%.

Direct- Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) - Available for parents of dependent undergraduate students. The current interest rate is 7%. Approval is based solely on good credit.

Eligibility:

1. Completed Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This application is available through FAFSA on the internet at www.fafsa.ed.gov. WTC's school code number is 009549.
2. Enrolled in at least half-time (6 hours) in an eligible degree or certificate program at WTC.
3. Your financial aid file must be completed – i.e. FAFSA submitted to WTC, WTC Worksheet, and verification (if applicable) completed.
4. All students attending Western Texas College and receiving federal or state financial aid funds must maintain satisfactory academic progress. See www.wtc.edu financial aid web page for detail information on Satisfactory Academic progress.

Borrowing Limits

There are limits on how much a student can borrow per school year based on dependency status, need, cost of attendance and prior loans. The Financial Aid office will determine your maximum eligible amount. Western Texas College will not certify a loan for a student or parent if histories of delinquent or defaulted loans exist. A student who is in default on any student loan will not be eligible for student loans. It is the student's responsibility to apply for a student loan. The federal Government will be your lender, once you have been approved to receive a loan.
