

Position: Sociology/Criminal Justice Instructor
Reports to: Division Chair, Communications and Behavioral Sciences
Terms: Full-time, 9-month contract
Salary: On scale, Determined by credentials and experience
Starting Date: August 2022

Position Summary:

Instruct sociology and criminal justice classes, offered both day and evening. Modes of delivery include traditional face-to-face, interactive television (ITV), blended and online. Courses are taught on the WTC campus, in area high schools, and in the TDCJ Correctional facilities. The primary instructional purpose of the department is to teach sociology and criminal justice and its related skills.

Qualifications:

- Master's Degree required.
- 18 graduate hours in Sociology.
- 18 graduate hours in Criminal Justice.
- Required to be collegial, respectful, and professional with faculty, staff, and students always.
- Ability to work full time is essential.
- Workplace attendance is essential for job function.

To apply, please submit via email only:

- A current resume/CV
- A WTC Application (Please do not say "see resume") Application
- A cover letter – not to exceed 2 pages, that includes a description of how the applicant meets the listed qualifications. The applicant may also include other applicable professional experience.
- Transcripts

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position has been filled. Application documents received without a cover letter describing your fit for the position will not be considered.

Please email documents to jobs@wtc.edu